"The difference between wishing for something and wanting something is a willingness to pay the price." ~ M. Duncan

A Man among Them

God is not looking for a man distant and remote. He is looking for a man who knows the conflict and sees the truth of humanity's fallen nature and will not abandon humanity to evil. God is looking for a man who has set himself like iron, who does not merely complain about the conditions but one who will rise up and contend for the cause of Christ.
